

Dear Colleagues,

this is the second news letter for the conference SUSY 2010, which will be held in Bonn, Aug 23rd - 28th. The deadline for the early registration fee, July 1st, 2010, is approaching. After July 1st, the fee goes up to EUR 320. The housing in the hotels has been reserved for the conference upto July 26th, 2010. That is also the deadline for the free public transportation pass. Please note the registration fee for students for SUSY 2010 is only 150 €,

The conference program will involve plenary talks on the mornings of Monday (Aug. 23.) through Saturday (Aug. 28th). The speakers for these talks have been chosen and are given on the web page.

There will be parallel session talks on the afternoons of Mo., Tu., Th. and Fr. of the week. At present we expect to accomodate about 180 parallel session talks. The deadline for submission of talks with abstracts is July 1st. At this point we start to decide on the parallel session talks. Talks requests submitted after July 1st can only be accomodated if there is still time available.

The speakers for the pre-SUSY school are also now fixed and given on the web page. Note the registration fee for students for the pre-SUSY school is only EUR 50.

The excursions will take place on Wed Aug 25th. Please choose an excursion when you register.

There will be a bbq reception with German beer on Monday, August 23rd.

The conference dinner will be held on Thursday, August 26th on a boat on the Rhine.

Please see the conference web page, <http://susy10.uni-bonn.de/> , for further details.

Sincerely,

Herbi Dreiner
(For the organizers)